POLITICAL ROUND-UP

UNA and ATA issued Zeros from Arbitrator

Last Friday afternoon, the United Nurses of Alberta and the Alberta Teachers Association were issued no wage increases in arbitration. While the UCP and AHS were pushing for wage rollbacks (as they are at our tables), the decision came down to the independent arbitrator.

AUPE's members are still waiting for a decision from the arbitrator assigned to the GoA and AHS tables

Another Employer Seeking Rollbacks

SAIT is the latest employer to table -2% wage rollbacks for AUPE members, following the UCP government's lead.

Government Confirms New Session will begin February 25

MLAs will return to the Legislature on February 25. This new session will begin with a Speech from the Throne, which means old Bills that did not pass during the last session are dead.

Still Expecting AHS Review

The government contracted Ernst and Young to review the organization, services and programs of Alberta Health Services \(AHS\). The company's report should have been delivered on schedule to government by December 31. No date has been provided on when the report will be shared publicly.
