Your Union does all this?

1. Negotiates Your Agreement establishing working conditions, wages and benefits

- 2. Protects Your Rights through grievances and arbitration procedure and ioint consultation committees
- 3. Regulates Health & Safety monitors worksites and investigates problems
- 4. Provides Education on union matters and other areas of interest to members
- 5. Communicates Regularly through Direct Impact and other publications
- 6. Provides Emergency Financial Help through the Member Benefits Fund
- 7. Assists With Negotiated Benefit Issues such as life insurance, long-term disability, health benefit plans and pensions
- 8. Plans Social Activities In Area Councils dances, curling bonspiels, barbecues and sports tournaments

For More Details, Contact Your Union Steward or Worksite Contact

www.aupe.org

Contact the Member Resource Centre

AUPE's Member Resource Centre can help you with any questions you have about what AUPE can do for you and put you in touch with union stewards and worksite contacts in your workplace. Call 1-800-232-7284 to speak to an agent today!

